The pattern includes red, blue, orange, and green flowers and leaves on a light background. The headboard is covered with a thick, light-colored, textured material, possibly a plush fabric or fur. White, ruffled bedding is visible on the right side of the frame. NIDO COLLECTION

The NIDO Collection — Where Comfort is Born

The name of our new kids' bed collection translates from Italian as 'nest.' And in this single word lies its entire philosophy. We have created a space where a child will feel endlessly warm, peaceful, and cozy as they drift off to sleep.

At the heart of the collection is a large, incredibly soft headboard, thoughtfully divided into two parts. A subtle, elegant accent of refined wood gently highlights this duo, mirrored in the neat wooden legs. This delicate contrast between softness and natural wood texture brings the design truly to life.

The NIDO collection is designed for both boys and girls. Each model carries its own distinct character in its lines and silhouette, yet they all speak the same design language. The palette — ranging from the softest pastels to rich, playful tones — allows you to create the perfect atmosphere in every child's room. With NIDO, it's so easy to fall asleep and so delightful to wake up to new adventures.
